

Camping Weekend '11

For the last 6 years, 20-25 adults and children, connected in some way with hope:asha – the Salvation Army in Stepney, have attended a weekend of camping and fun over the August Bank holiday weekend. Here are the details of this year's trip:

Date: Friday 26 – Monday 29 August (for those who wish it is possible to arrive on Saturday 27 August or even just travel up for the day)

Where: Sunbury Court Conference Centre, Sunbury-on-Thames,
Website: www.sunburycourt.co.uk – lots of photos and info online!

Sunbury Court, about an hour and half away from Tower Hamlets, is a restored 18th century mansion house with large open grounds and an outdoor swimming pool. Nearby is the Thames with boat trips, Hampton Court, Richmond Park and Kew Gardens. It's a lovely quiet place with lots of space to relax and for children to play. We can also have an open camp fire in the evenings!

Accommodation: This year we have the use of a 'log cabin' that has 3 rooms – a double room, a 4 bed and an 8 bed dormitory (with bunk beds). It has a lounge, dining area and shower. We can pitch tents nearby for extra space and for those who want to sleep under canvas! More showers and toilets are also available in a nearby block.

Cost: For cabin: £12 per person per night. For those in tents: £20 per pitch per night. You will also need money for food, travel and any extras. There is also a small charge for swimming.

Practicalities:

- We have access to camping equipment such as tents, cookers, sleeping bags etc for those who don't own their own equipment but would like to camp.
- Travel arrangements and car-sharing can be organised.
- If you would like to come but feel you can't afford the whole amount, The Salvation Army has got access to some money that could contribute towards your cost. Please let us know – we would love you to come!
- Children can only attend with their parent/guardian
